Treatment of personal data:

Pursuant to and for the purposes of Article 7 et seq. of EU regulation 2016/679.

Having read the paper information shown at the time of signing this proxy and in any case also available on the website www.sindacatofast.it/privacycompartoereo.pdf, therefore being aware of: 1) the identity of the data controller. 2) the identity of the DPO data protection officer. 3) of the modalities with which the treatment takes place. 4) the purposes of the processing for which the personal data are intended. 5) of the rights of the interested party. Being aware that the processing of data, including sensitive data, as part of the activities of the trade union does not require the consent of the interested party

1. For institutional activity.

I consent to the communication of my common and sensitive data to the subjects indicated in the information, with particular reference to the employer reported in the proxy (possibly as well as to social security and welfare institutions, to bilateral bodies and contractual joint bodies and, in any case, to all the trade union structures, to the extent that communication is essential for the correct and complete fulfilment of the statutory purposes as well as the obligations established by the current legislation)

2. For institutional and / or promotional trade union information activities.

In relation to the information, noting that the provision of consent for activities unrelated to the protection of the worker or pensioner is not mandatory and that, in case of refusal, you will not receive any prejudice, I consent to the processing of my data, expressing consent or not, for the purposes of institutional and / or promotional information from the trade union both by paper mail and by other technological tools such as email, whatsapp etc ...

* I agree I do not agree

3. For activities related to agreements with service providers.

In the awareness that the provision of consent to the communication of data for activities unrelated to trade union protection, even if provided for by the Statute, is not mandatory and that, in case of refusal, you will not receive any prejudice, by expressing consent or not to the processing of my data common personal data, to the subjects to whom they will be communicated for activities related to the agreements, the data strictly necessary to be able to provide the services in the agreement to the member will be communicated to the companies in question.

* I agree I do not agree
